New Video Featuring European Commissioner Kadri Simson on All NEMO Committee Website

All NEMO Committee is thrilled to announce the release of a captivating new video on the All NEMO Committee website. It is truly a pleasure and an honour to feature a video message from our esteemed European Commissioner for Energy Kadri Simson. In this video, Commissioner Simson graciously acknowledges and commends the exceptional efforts of the Nominated Electricity Market Operators (NEMOs).

Commissioner Simson's words resonate powerfully: "EU consumers benefit hugely from our internal electricity market and the secured energy supply. This would not be possible without the work of the Nominated Electricity Market Operators."

As we continue our unwavering commitment to shaping a sustainable energy landscape for Europe, this endorsement from a prominent leader reaffirms the pivotal role NEMOs play in ensuring a robust and reliable electricity market. We are deeply grateful for Commissioner Simson's recognition and support.

You can watch the video directly on the All NEMO Committee website, where Commissioner Simson's insights shed light on the integral part NEMOs play in advancing our energy goals.
